Notes for grown-ups

Why this matters

Looking at a busy picture is a lovely way to get children talking. This book uses pictures from the farm to build vocabulary, practise speaking in sentences and spot detail.

How to use this book

1. Do one or two pages a day, not the whole book at once.
2. Talk about the pictures before you start each page.
3. Let your child take their time; there is no rush.
4. Praise trying and noticing, not neatness.

Things to say

- "What can you see?"
- "What is happening?"
- "What would you do at the farm?"

What to look for

- Names things in the pictures
- Talks about the farm in short sentences
- Answers questions about what they see

If it is too hard

Look at just one picture, and take turns pointing to things you can name.

If it is too easy

Ask them to tell you a story about a day at the farm.

You will need

pencil, crayons, scissors (adult-led), glue (optional)
