What children will practice: Letter recognition, alphabetical order and visual reference using a classroom alphabet line.

How to use:

1. Print the alphabet cards.
2. Cut out each card along the lines.
3. Hang them in alphabetical order around the classroom wall.
4. Point to the letters during songs, reading and writing.
5. Children can find letters on the line as a reference.

Tips:

- Laminate the cards for durability.
- Hang them at child height.
- Use the line for letter of the week displays.
- Great for independent letter hunting.

Cards included:

- A–Z uppercase and lowercase pairs
- Ready to cut and hang in a continuous line
