What children will practice: Voice sounds, body percussion, listening and rhythm through printable cards.

How to use:

1. Print and cut out the cards.
2. Hold up a card and make the sound together.
3. Children can sequence the cards or copy the pattern.
4. Use them for games, music time or quiet practice.
5. Talk about loud, soft, fast and slow sounds.

Tips:

- Laminate for durability.
- Start with one or two cards at a time.
- Great for music, listening and self-regulation.

Cards included:

- Voice sounds (animal and environmental)
- Body percussion (clap, stamp, tap, click)
- Extra sound cards
